FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20463

OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL

MUR # 6592

Dear Commissioners:

Please accept this letter as a notice of multiple violations related to Jacob Turk, "Turk for Congress," Republican candidate for the Fifth District of Missouri. Mr. Turk has run for Congress on three separate occasions and is running a fourth time in 2012. Over the course of his candidacies, he has demonstrated a disregard for compliance with federal election law.

Specifically, the FEC previously cited Mr. Turk for failing to file his Statement of Candidacy. Once again, Mr. Turk has failed to file a Statement of Candidacy for the 2012 election cycle. The "Turk for Congress" campaign committee surpassed the threshold for filing a Statement of Candidacy in the middle of 2011 with respect to expenditures made exceeding $5,000. At the 2011 year-end report filing, "Turk for Congress" reflects tens of thousands of dollars in expenditures and tens of thousands of dollars in contributions received. But, there is not a Statement of Candidacy filed for the 2012 election cycle.

Further, Mr. Turk continually fails to report expenditures. Specifically, thousands of dollars of billboards were installed in 2011 yet no expenditure is reflected on the year-end filing. The first quarter 2012 report finally reports some level of expenditure, but it appears to reflect only a portion of the billboards installed. The printing cost alone for a 48' billboard is approximately $1500 each for the three billboards installed for an estimated total $4500 yet approximately $6100 was reported. A billboard industry executive has indicated that he was directly approached by a group of Lee's Summit, Missouri business owners to purchase billboards on behalf of "Turk for Congress." This is again failure to report a donation as an in-kind contribution, accepting a corporate donation if these purchases were paid by a company, or possibly donors exceeding the maximum allowable contribution levels. If the FEC seriously pursues an investigation on this aspect of the violations noted, the billboard industry executive has indicated a willingness to go on the record with the FEC (Exhibits A).

There are three other violations related to this billboard expenditure: 1.) Either, "Turk for Congress" is not paying market rates for billboards, or the campaign is receiving free billboards by allowing billboards to stay up beyond their lease terms. In other words, CBS outdoor, the vendor for "Turk for Congress," is essentially providing a prohibited corporate donation to "Turk for Congress." These billboards should only remain up during the rental period purchased by "Turk for Congress." After the rental period, they should be removed or covered so as not to provide a corporate contribution by CBS outdoor for "Turk for Congress." 2.) The billboards fail to appropriately list the "Paid For By" disclaimer. As stipulated under federal election law, all federal candidates must enclose their "Paid For By" disclaimer in a "box." "Turk for Congress" fails to do so on all of its billboards; 3.) In addition, the copy reads "Turk US Congress" -- not Turk "for" U.S. Congress, "Elect" Turk U.S. Congress, "Vote" Turk U.S. Congress or any other indication that Mr. Turk is a candidate not a current Member of Congress, again a violation of federal election law. Corrective action is required (Exhibits A).

Violation, mileage reimbursements converted campaign funds to personal funds and falling outside the allowable timeframes established by the FEC. Mr. Turk and his wife have received more than $12,445.00 in mileage reimbursements from "Turk for Congress" in less than a 52 day period in 2011 -- a non-election year. An additional $1,586.00 was received in April of 2011 and another $1,017.00 in July of 2010. These expenditures are a conversion of campaign funds to personal funds and fall outside the allowable timeframe established by the FEC. At a rate of $.50 a mile, this equates to more than 6222 miles in 52 days. The 2010 Fifth District distance north to south is 30.1 miles, and the distance east of west is 27.8 miles. This would mean that the Turks have traveled multiple times, multiple lengths of the district throughout multiple days. Further the first quarter 2012 report reflects a mileage reimbursement to Donna Turk on February 9, 2012 for $1015.75 and $414.59 for a total of $1430.34. Again at a rate of $.50 a mile this is more than 2860 miles. The previous mileage reimbursement was reported on December 20, 2011 which reflects a total 50 days between reimbursements. While this reimbursement may fall within the time limits established by the FEC, it is highly unlikely that almost 60 miles a day was traveled each day between reimbursements during the holiday season. Additionally, Mr. Turk directly solicited campaign donors for personal use of airline tickets for him and his wife (Exhibit B).

Further, Mr. Turk has three campaign employees who were active in the fourth quarter 2011, but "Turk for Congress" does not reflect any payments made to these employees during 2011. Mr. Turk announced his fourth candidacy on December 12, 2011. Specifically, in Mr. Turk's revised statement of organization filing with the FEC he lists a campaign manager, Scott Pinto, who has stated that he is working for "Turk for Congress" as campaign manager, no compensation is reflected upon the fourth quarter filing, a flagrant violation of federal election law (Exhibit C). Compensation is finally reported on the first quarter 2012 report. It also appears that Mr. Turk is receiving legal services either "in-kind" or paying for them yet not disclosing on the fourth-quarter 2011 report from Jamie Baker Landes. Mr. Turk and his wife, Donna Turk, have been actively engaged in fighting the enacted congressional maps in the state of Missouri. Specifically, Donna Turk is listed as a plaintiff on the following cases where Ms. Baker Landes is the Attorney of Record: Missouri Case #s 11AC-CC00752, SC92203, and SC92326. Either Ms. Baker Landes is providing "in-kind" services to "Turk for Congress" or "Turk for Congress" is paying Ms. Baker Landes for services either way it must be disclosed and it has not been disclosed (Exhibits D).

Another violation for the 2012 election cycle occurred on the last day of the first quarter. "Turk for Congress" held a fundraising event at Faulkner's Ranch located in Kansas City, Missouri. Faulkner's Ranch is operated by Ranch Entertainment, Inc., a Missouri Corporation (Exhibit E). The facilities terms and conditions state that $1,000 deposit is required for an event (Exhibit F). Further, "Turk for Congress" advertised a donated White House Easter Egg as prize for the event (Exhibit G). There appear to be three violations here: 1.) Accepting a corporate contribution since no expenditure for facility rental was reported.; 2.) If the facility rental was an "in-kind" donation from one of the owners then it is failing to report an "in-kind" donation and corresponding expenditure for facility rental.; and 3.) Failing to report an "in-kind" contribution for the White House Easter Egg donated to the "Turk for Congress" campaign provided the value yielded a contribution in excess of $200 from an individual.

During the 2010 election cycle, Mr. Turk and his campaign committee, "Turk for Congress" demonstrated multiple flagrant violations. A clear and distinct pattern of behavior of violating federal election law is demonstrated by the following violations outlined below.

Violation, failed to properly disclaim campaign materials having the "Paid For By" disclaimer included in a box. These same campaign materials are being used for the 2012 election cycle. (Exhibits H,I,J,K,L,M,N & O)

Violation, campaign materials represented Mr. Turk as being a current Member of Congress by failing to have the words indicating he is a candidate i.e. "for" "vote" "elect" etc. the materials read "Turk U.S. Congress." These same campaign materials are being used for the 2012 election cycle. (Exhibits H,I,J,K,L,M,N & O)

Violation, failed to disclose TV advertising purchases timely. The TV buys reflect purchases occurring prior to the Pre-Election Report for 2010, but no expenditure was reported. The dates are clear, as are the payments' timing to the vendors. A like violation occurred in the 3rd quarter of 2010 when the largest campaign expenditure of $19,794.00 on August 3, 2010 was not reported timely, but subsequently reported after the fact. (Exhibits P)

Violation, accepted corporate contributions. The FEC has previously asked for clarification of "in-kind" donations received by "Turk for Congress." A number of the items received as "in-kind" are highly suspect. For instance a Garmin GPS was received as "in-kind" donation from Jan Sindt, an employee of Garmin. The question is whether this is simply a pass-through conduit of the corporate donation from Garmin Industries to "Turk for Congress." Further, vacation rentals were received by "Turk for Congress" from multiple entities; one specifically comes from a home builder Dennis & Joni Fastnacht – Dennison Development, documentation needs to be secured reflecting private ownership of this vacation rental versus corporate ownership of this vacation rental. Additionally, Lone Summit Ranch hosted a "Turk for Congress" fundraising auction where Lone Summit Catering owner Judy Gibson provided in-kind catering services, as did her husband John Gibson. However, Missouri State Corporate records show 100% ownership of Lone Summit Catering is directly attributed to Judy Gibson with John Gibson having no ownership stake according to corporate filings with Missouri Secretary State Office (Exhibit Q). Thus, John Gibson's in-kind donation is falsely disclosed and/or a corporate donation associated with facility rental of the Lone Summit Ranch estimated value of $750 to $1500 (Exhibit R). It appears that a Trust owns the facility. There is a clear and distinct violation.

Violation, failed to disclose expenditures. Utility deposits made by "Turk for Congress" are reflected in (Exhibit S). Further, no utility payments are disclosed on any FEC reports.

Violation, failed to report an "in-kind" donation. Charles Falkenberg paid for a newspaper ad in the Lake Lotawana Express on behalf of "Turk for U.S. Congress." Mr. Falkenberg contributed to "Turk for Congress" $500.00 on 10-19-10, but no disclosure is reflected for the payment of this advertising. (Exhibit T)

Violation, coordinated with Missouri Right to Life on advertisements and received a contribution from a state qualified political action committee versus a federally qualified political action committee. (Exhibit U) A review of the "Turk for Congress" website and the "Missouri Right to Life" advertisement clearly demonstrates a mirror image of topics, words, phrases and characterizations reflecting direct and specific coordination between "Turk for Congress" and "Missouri Right to Life" (Exhibit V). Further, Missouri Right to Life's ad in the Catholic Key newspaper ran on four separate occasion: 9-24-10, 10-8-10, 10-22-10, and 10-29-10, and was paid for by a State of Missouri Political Action Committee and not a federally qualified political action committee (Exhibit W).

Violation, failed to appropriately disclose a federal candidate raising money for a state/local candidate and using federal campaign resources to directly benefit a state/local candidate. (Exhibits X)

Violation, failed to disclose expenditures for renting facilities/accepting corporate donations. (Exhibit Y) At least two of the locations listed in (Exhibit Y), the Belton Community Center and Clarion Hotel require rental fees – in this case not disclosed. If the facilities were donated it constitutes a prohibited corporate contribution to a federal campaign committee. Mr. Turk is a veteran so he may have some privilege to use the American Legion Hall without compensation, but it would seem to still need to be disclosed for federal reporting purposes.

Violation, failed to disclose expenditure, receiving a corporate contribution, or failing to report an allowable in-kind donation. (Exhibit Z), reflects that Tropic Sno provided shaved flavor ice after the 4th of July parade in Sugar Creek, MO. No listing appears on the "Turk for Congress" FEC reports for either an expenditure or "in-kind" donation from Tropic Sno. Likewise, it is possible that Tropic Sno is a corporation and hence provided a prohibited donation.

Possible Violation, media reports indicated that "Turk for Congress" was paying workers cash, which if correct, results in a violation for failing to disclose expenditures; further media reports questioned how Mr. Turk pays for his living expenses without having a job for a number of years directly implying that Mr. Turk is using campaign funds for personal living expenses. (Exhibit AA)

Possible Violation, the (Exhibit BB) specifically list that a cash contribution was provided to "Turk for Congress." The FEC should contact this contributor and confirm that the dollar threshold of the contribution was below the $200 reporting requirement and within the allowable limits for accepting cash.

All of these violations clearly demonstrate a pattern of behavior of ignoring the law, specific intent, and directly operating outside of federal election laws rules and regulations. Mr. Turk cannot claim he is unaware of federal election law nor can he claim this is simply an oversight. In three separate elections, he has run for Congress and now a fourth candidacy demonstrates willful intent at failing to disclose expenditures and donations accurately.

Corrective action on all existing materials printed, electronic, apparel or otherwise that wrongly reflect Mr. Turk as an incumbent Member of Congress, fail to appropriately disclose the disclaimer in a box must be removed from the public and/or corrected immediately. The FEC must not allow Mr. Turk and "Turk for Congress" to simply recycle prior election items without correcting these deficiencies. Fines and penalties at the maximum levels for each violation are

Sincerely,

180 Degrees

As of now, the Predator project I have been working on is put on hold indefinitely. Hopefully, I will take it up again once more in the future, but God has opened up a door somewhere else. Late in December the Jacob Turk for Congress Campaign interviewed me over the phone. They were looking for someone to be their Media Director. The interview went well, but the job didn't pay enough, so I figured that it was a closed door. Which was tough because I really wanted the job. During high school and college I followed politics and volunteered on various different political campaigns. And seeing as how no job were opening up in New Jersey I thought this would be a great opportunity. It was just too bad that I couldn't take the job. But the next day I received a message from the Turk campaign that they had a higher paying position available that I should apply for, so I did. Soon after that I was offered the position of campaign manager. Now I am waiting this thing from a living room in Lake Forest, Missouri in Mr. Turk's 1st district where I will be working for the next 18 months. Mr. Turk's district encompasses Kansas City and the surrounding countryside. It's 40% urban and includes most of Jackson County. It's an uphill challenge, Mr. Turk is running against a four term incumbent, Rep. Emanuel Cleaver. But if there was no challenge where would the fun be? What questions do you have about life in Missouri? I've been here for three days at this point and am still getting used to the place, but at the least it promises to be a good experience!

Steadily Trudging On

This week I continued to work on the Predator costume by finishing the right arm piece that houses the double blades. I spray painted it completely black except for the front by the blades, which I'll do later. The more I look at it, the more details I think it needs. I haven't even started the left one.

One cool thing about the arm piece is I left the top metal panel loose and attached it with black tape. It can open just like in the movie, but I'm not sure if I'm going to do anything with that.

EGG-HUNTERS EGGSTRAVAGANZA

Sat. March 31, 2012
10:00 - 11:00 AM

President Rutherford B. Hayes made the White House Easter Egg Roll an annual event in 1878 and the tradition still continues today. In 1981 President and Mrs. Ronald Reagan introduced the White House Keepsake Eggs -- wooden eggs bearing the signatures of famous Americans.

The Prize Basket contains an authentic White House keepsake egg from the 122nd annual Egg Roll, plus Christopher Elbow gourmet Easter chocolates!

We will also play "Bunny Heads and Tails", so bring two $10 bills to play this crazy-fun game! All proceeds support the Turk for Congress campaign.

If you cannot attend, please make a contribution to the cause. Our next critical fund raising deadline is March 31st & all eyes will be on our funds raised through that date.

{CONTRIBUTE NOW}

Question? Contact Carrie Kafka at carrie@turkforcongress.com or (816) 935-3872.

Contribute to Jacob Turk for Congress

<http://www.turkforcongress.com>

Special interest groups and PACs donate millions to the Congresscritters of their choice. Is it any wonder their interests are represented, while we the people are left frustrated and bewildered over the decisions our Representatives make?

If we are to have a people's Representative, then we, the people, must support our candidates with the financial means to win. Jacob has a pledge to not accept any money from PACs. Let's join together and make it possible to buy the yard signs, campaign literature, supplies and advertising necessary to win this November and get our liberties back!

We need as many people as possible to donate the maximum amount of $2,500 to the cause (that's $2,500 per person in the primary, and again in the general election).

If you are unable to be a max donor of $2,500, then please consider becoming one of Turk's 1000 for $100 today. Whether you can give $100 all at once or contribute $25 a month, it all adds up to victory for the people in November 2012. Please contribute now! If contributing by check please send it to Jacob Turk for Congress, P.O. Box 2097, Lee's Summit, MO 64063.

will determined the absolute last possible date for a new primary election would be Oct. 30, which would mean the court's decision would have had to be made by Oct. 16 in order for two weeks' notice. This was logistically impossible, Witt writes.

"[T]he person appointed would have to complete his or her investigation, hold a hearing, file the transcript, exhibits, and his or her report with this Court," the order reads. "Further, the parties would have to file any exceptions to that report, the Court would have to hold a hearing on the Master's Report and the Court would have to issue less than 48 hours. At this point, it is an impossibility to provide Royster the relief requested."

Rizzo simply said Friday he hopes to get back to "talking about how we can make the 40th District and Northeast better."

"Hopefully he'll allow us to do that," Rizzo said.

Royster could not be reached for comment. The day before the court's latest decision, his campaign manager issued a written statement saying they hoped the courts would address the new information that suggested voters residing outside the district voted Aug. 3.

MEET JACOB TURK

Candidate for U S CONGRESS

Running to unseat Emanuel Cleaver-

FRIDAY - OCTOBER 15 - 6 PM...

Join us at the FALKENBERG's L-84

We will have plenty of beer, hot dogs & music.

Please bring friends and snacks to share.

Congress, whether Republican or Democrat majority, is under control of an egocentric "ruling class" that shows no regard for those of us who pay the bills!

JACOB TURK is representing people-not special interests. He is not beholden to the influences that are expanding the bureaucracy in Washington D.C. This is our best chance to send the message to both parties that we have had enough! The only way to do this is at the ballot box!

Who does the 5th Congressional seat belong to? I thought it was OURS! The "ruling class" owns it now. It is up to us to make the change! Come to support Jacob and VOTE for him November 2.

Turk vs. Cleaver

October 24, 2010, 9:25 pm

Jacob Turk

Former small business owner, Marine veteran, working man.

Believes in addressing what is broken in our health care system (access and cost) with targeted solutions, not expanded government control or huge legislation that contains thousands of pork. Does NOT support government take over of health care.

Will stop the scam of Cap and Trade, a huge tax on every Missourian who uses electricity.

Failing businesses should fail or restructure. Supports helping small businesses create new jobs and generate new enterprises.

Taxes should be lowered and some eliminated. Will vote to keep and extend the 2003 cuts, allowing you to keep more of your money and spend it in the economy as you choose, rather than the government take it from you and spend according to their agenda.

Emanuel Cleaver

Career Politician (30 yrs.), retired pastor

Voted for the 2,000 page "health care bill which expands government control and intrusion in health care, puts bureaucrats charge instead of your doctor, and will raise taxes on individuals and employers.

Voted for Cap and Trade – a tax on coal which will kill jobs in the 5th District and Missouri.

Voted YES on the Bailout Bill for banks, Tarp I & II, and the Stimulus Bill. Promote "job creation" through more government programs & higher taxes.

Votes against cutting taxes. Voted to raise taxes by letting the 2003 tax cuts expire the coming January.

13044344534

Believes our government should be constitutionally limited and problems solved by the private sector.

Believes in expanding government to solve the country's problems through more & more regulations and government agencies

Respects and will protect human life:

- Supports regulations on abortion, such as parental notification, a ban on partial-birth abortions, and fully informing women of their rights and the risks.
- Supports adult stem cell research, against human cloning.

Doesn't respect or protect human life:

- Against any restrictions on abortion. Against parental notification, supports partial-birth abortion.
- Supports embryonic stem cell research. Supports human cloning.

Believes in the traditional definition of marriage (one man, one woman). Will fight for freedom of religious expression for all.

Voted to repeal 'Don't Ask, Don't Tell'. Champion of ENDA (forcing churches and religious schools to hire staff against their convictions).

Give Nola A Chance For Victory

There is one conservative candidate in this MO Senate race - Nola Wood - and we need to do what we can to support her.

Candidates cannot win without support - let's get behind her and go for it!

Fund Raiser at Jacob & Donna Turk's Thursday, Jan. 13th 7-8:30pm

Come by, meet Nola, and make a donation to her campaign.

Come and go at our house, 417 SE Annette St. Lee's Summit, MO 64063.

Nibble on snacks while you visit with Nola and write your check and/or sign up to volunteer your time.

If you can't come but want to help with time, money or resources, please reply to this message and let me know.

Time is short, so let's get this done. Working together, we just might be able to pick up another seat in Missouri's Senate to add one more conservative vote to Missouri's legislative body.

Come and Go Fundraiser for Nola Wood

Thursday, January 13, 2011

7:00pm - 8:30pm

Jacob and Donna Turk's, 417 SE Annette, Lees Summit, MO

With no election candidate activity going on except for the special election for Missouri's State Senatorial District 9 on February 22nd, all conservatives and Republicans in Kansas City and the surrounding area can help Nola Wood provide real representation for an area which has never had a Conservative elected. So far, the Missouri GOP is staying on the sidelines so the only race for Congress it is up to us to win this race.

Since time is so short, on Thursday, January 13th Donna and I will be sponsoring a come and go fundraiser at our home from 7p to 8:30p. Come meet Nola Wood and contribute what you can. RSVP's are appreciated but not necessary. Nola will also need volunteers to spread the word so reply to this email and let us know if you will give of your time.

Working together we came close and accomplished much in Missouri's 5th District. Our efforts are giving me the ammunition needed to get redistricting help for all citizens of the 5th. Win or lose, let's do the same for Missouri's 9th State Senatorial District!

Kansas City Election Choices - Go Vote!

Share · Public Event

Time Tuesday, February 22 · 6:00am - 7:00pm

Location Kansas City Missouri

Created By Jacob Turk for Congress

More Info 9th Senatorial Special Election: Nola Wood will bring a conservative voice and independent mind for the Kansas City area. Please consider staying after you vote to work your polling place and ask other voters to 'Please vote for my friend Nola Wood for State Senate.'

Tomorrow all who live within KCMO have the opportunity to move the City Council in a more conservative direction. Here are my choices in those races where there are more than two candidates including one I can recommend:

Mayor: Mark Funkhouser - After watching 3 Mayoral Forums it has become apparent the current Mayor is the most conservative choice and the one least controlled by the same KC machine that worked to defeat our bid for Congress

3rd District at Large: Durwin Rice

4th District at Large: Annie Presley

5th District at Large: Please do a write in for Mahlon Davis. He is a black conservative both socially and fiscally who helped our Congressional run. He has campaigned to repeal the tax. Remember to write in Mahlon Davis 5th District Large.

6th District at Large: Tracy Ward - the candidate with the pink hair. Tracy worked on our 2006 and 2008 campaigns and is a fiscally conservative Libertarian who wants to get rid of the red light cameras and the e-tax.

No in district recommendations.

Dear 5th District Business Owner,

I know how hard it is to run a business, because I've done it just like you.

My name is Jacob Turk and I am running to be your Congressman in the 5th District against our incumbent Congressman Emanuel Cleaver.

I am personally inviting you to "Business Talks with Turk" where you will have the opportunity to participate in a business forum with me and other entrepreneurs.
Network and share your concerns. My objective is to listen.

I have many grave concerns about our future and our country. I think we all do. This great country has never seen a more determined effort by the U.S. Government to command and control every citizen – most especially businesses. There can only be free enterprise when there is a free society.

Nancy Pelosi and Emanuel Cleaver must be fired. They have NOT voted in the best interest of 5th District businesses. Cleaver has voted in lock-step with Pelosi on every piece of legislation that expands government power, taxation and spending. The facts are astonishing:

- Our Federal Government must borrow 42 cents of every dollar they are spending right now.... Escalating our unsustainable national debt! (President Reagan was spot on when he said, "Government is like a baby. An alimentary canal with a big appetite at one end and no sense of responsibility at the other.")
- 9.5% unemployment: Most economists argue it is really at 17% + even with a Trillion dollars in more debt to "stimulate" the economy. The ranks of the poor in this country are swelling to historical levels. This is unacceptable!
- Obamacare nationalizes 18% more of our economy. European style socialism is here. Conservatively the government will be 50% of our entire economy within 4 years.
- A proposed VAT or Value Added Tax will TAX every step of production on top of 17 new added taxes to fund nationalized health care.
- Cap-and-Trade, according to President Obama, will make electricity "skyrocket". Cleaver not only voted for Cap-and-Trade (and its derivatives), but is leading the charge. It will skyrocket prices on all energy. What is that going to do to the growing poor in Kansas City? To business? To EVERYONE?

Trust needs to be restored. These programs need to be repealed, reduced and replaced- reform is not enough. They have gone too far.

Everyone is anxious. We do know it's going to be a 'long winter'. Folks just want to be able to make good decisions based on knowledge of a stable predictable limited government.

You really can change this at the poll this November 2nd .... Need proof? Just look what the voters brought about in November 2008.

Limited Constitutional Government is the foundation of America. Ronald Reagan said, "Concentrated power has always been the enemy of Liberty". It is for Liberty we were founded. It is for Liberty our men and women in uniform die and fight. It is for Liberty we vote.

Take a stand with me on November 2nd. Please Vote for Turk for Congress. No candidate will win big this election in the 5th – whoever wins. Surprising to some, this is a close race. Your vote carries a lot of weight- this election especially, but you know that already or you wouldn't have read this far.

I am a U.S. Marine veteran with a deep respect and appreciation for those who have defended our country and are now serving. I refuse to play politics with any decisions regarding our military. This is the first order of the federal government – to protect its sovereign States from enemies.

I am a father and grandfather. As a single dad I raised three children for 12 years. I understand the difficulties of bringing-up children as the lone parent. All three of my children have been educated in the public school system within the 5th District. I believe in the importance of public education guided by the values of the local community.

I am a former small business owner – for 12 years. I really do understand the power of small business and its impact on the economy. It is imperative this sector thrive as it is responsible for almost 70% of all jobs and be free to do so without being paralyzed by excessive tax and regulations.

As a self-starter, I used assistance from the GI Bill and worked my way through Longview Community College and the University of Missouri-Kansas City where I received a degree in Mechanical Engineering.

I have lived in the 5th District for almost 30 years and I believe in its promise. A diverse community blessed with unique ethnic, business and educational opportunities making the 5th District richly endowed to move into the future with ability and confidence given a free environment to do so.

Help me bring Liberty home.

Sincerely,

Jacob Turk

TKC EXCLUSIVE!!! QUESTIONS ABOUT TURK CAMPAIGN ABOUND!!!

Last week there was a bit of excitement over the fact that Jacob Turk might only lose by single digits this time around. I didn't really see the big deal but I'm not the smartest dude following local politics.

However . . . Currently, one of the VERY BEST TKC TIPSTERS has noted that questions abound regarding Turk's Campaign.

Take a look:

"Jacob Turk has a very serious problem with his recent campaign disclosure filings. At a press conference last week he disclosed that his commercials would start airing on October 21 and he paid $40,000 to air them. As such, that amount should have been on his recent filings and it is not. The check should have been given to the TV station 24 hours prior to the commercial airing. In addition: How is he supporting himself and his wife? He doesn't seem to have a job. He closed his business and his wife doesn't work . . . There are also some very credible talk that the Turk campaign is paying people in cash. And that should raise a few eyebrows."

Campaign finance questions never really end up being a big deal but this talk against Turk is starting to gain momentum. It was widely touted that this has been a "clean" campaign . . . Upon further inspection, not so much. I'm sure Turk might be able to easily answer this question, but it's pretty much a foregone conclusion that he's going to lose . . . Only by a closer margin, so I doubt he'll bother.

I'm sure Turk is clean enough. Real issue is how close will this goober get to Cleaver. Cleaver is showing he is now vulnerable to a real R next time.

This was number 3, Sally...should have been "a charm"!

OK, you have some good points, Yvonne - and I DIDN'T donate to the nat'l party like I used to, so you're right there. Just seemed they supported some of the "good ol' boys" and not the conservative, like in Florida with Crist and Rubio, AND they wouldn't even give guys like Jacob a chance, or even open an office for ANYBODY in KC. BUT - you do have a point and I have to sadly agree with at least part of your logic.

Comment by Yvonne Starks 14 minutes ago

Well, surprise, I have some disagreement with this Republican analysis. Think we're sounding a little liberal here....the RNC is on "a budget" of priorities and choices just like anyone else who honestly spends their money in the wisest way possible. Thinking that there's "money for everybody" sounds a lot like the Democrat Congress thinking to me.

As I always ask my husband, "Who doesn't want everything?" We all talk about this mentality being a problem in America....What, sacrifice? What, do without?....well, talk is one thing, walk is another.

This is not a "loyalist screed" for the Republican Party as I'm usually accused of doing. I'm trying to back it with reason and common sense. Adding to the Party's spending choices is the loss of many of us not donating to them anymore. We're "mad" at them...."don't believe in them anymore"...."they don't spend it the way we want".....etc., etc. But then we are upset when the money isn't coming in from them to where we think it should be? Perhaps we need to find established PAC groups who ARE willing to take more risks on "underdogs" and donate more to them---or give more to the individual races ourselves. ???

Steele claims he still did well in donations to the RNC. I haven't seen any figures or comparisons as don't follow that closely, but more would always be better when one is talking money in politics. Doesn't always mean a win, of course---lot more at play---just as this discussion is about, money obviously helps for the awareness & educational factors.

Also don't think it's prejudice against "Tea Party types". My GUESS would be that they are considered less politically savvy at this stage of the game. As much as I liked Christine O'Donnell---that really was the case in the general election, especially its being an extremely tough state to win in besides. Her handlers were difficult to work with, they mis-advised her, her TV ads were more negative than positive in helping her win, etc. She did receive some Party money, but probably would have received more if the Party had more faith in her using it better. Just bouncin' off my own thoughts here on what I'll followed during the election....

No doubt there are some races they "could've/should've"....but every single race isn't on their shoulders alone. Turk's race was probably one of the very toughest in the country---the RNC may have determined they might win two or three other races a few tiers easier in money given.

Not necessarily just defendin'....just thinkin'....

Comment by April Clark 18 minutes ago

Does anyone know if Turk has the stomach to try again? Could be that more of us in Kansas would have time to work for him next election, depending on what else goes on in our own state...

Comment by Kim 49 minutes ago

Sally, I think it comes down to the power-brokers in the Republican party which exist at the various locales: so many of them don't want anything to do with the tea party folks, feel threatened by them, or don't like purist conservative thought, and therefore refuse to support these good people.

Comment by Sally 57 minutes ago

I still don't understand the Republican party's refusal to back candidates like Jacob Turk. I don't understand, when tea party candidate that were running as Republicans were working hard and doing well (for people without party backing), why they refused to put their money and power behind these folks. They wouldn't back Marco Rubio in Florida, or even Joe Miller in AK even though he won the primary!!! And if I'm not mistaken, the party didn't even have an office in Kansas City! A city that size, and not even a Republican headquarters office? I know they can't be everywhere, and they have to use the money where it does the most good, but MO has shown that it CAN elect Republicans, and it CAN be a red state! Someone like Jacob had little chance without some national backing and money. What is the problem here????

Comment by Martin Oliver Bridges Sr 2 hours ago

BTW, I donated cash and walked door-to-door for Jacob. He was endorsed by Sarah but still couldn't get enough money to do more than run a couple of ads the last week of the election, and he STILL was only about 10 points behind at the end. If the RNC, either local or National, had gotten behind Jacob he would have had a much better chance and we would be looking forward to 2 years WITHOUT Cleaver!

Comment by Martin Oliver Bridges Sr 2 hours ago

April, saw that a couple of days ago. It was truly disgusting, PLUS the fact that you don't even hear Sean Hannity, much less the lame-stream media, talking about this "minor little" $48 BILLION earmark. We've heard about several earmarks in the Omnibus Bill that adds up to a mere $1.3 Billion.

Comment by John Resavy 3 hours ago

Well it has been awhile since my last post, but this development with Bon Jovi is not unexpected. Steve, hate to break it to you, but Bon Jovi is still a top tier rock band that claims many fans. That being said, many of these fans are sophisticated enough to cut through the rhetoric that will accompany concerts. That however is the tip of the iceberg. Think of all the college campuses that will play host to Obama-Jovi! Not only will they flock to these "free" concerts, but think of the media attention at events such as the Grammy's. Republicans need to look at "in-kind" donations.
